Santorini Shopping,: Information about shopping in Santorini Greece, Cyclades

There are many shops and shopping hubs in Santorini Island, Greece that will give you the opportunity for Santorini shopping. You can find jeweleries, high quality leather goods and others as woven goods, folk art, and handicrafts. So, do not hesitate to go for Santorini shopping.

Fira offers much in the way of shopping opportunities. You will be amazed at the sheer number of jewelry shops around the centre of the town. Interspersed with these there are also a number of expensive boutiques. In both these types of shops be prepared for some excellent salesmen and assurances that whatever you're looking at is the best on the island. You don't have to look for the usual tourist type shops with their tee-shirts, postcards and hats. The main square contains useful shops if you are looking to purchase International Press or camera films.

Oia is the other place on the island that is good for shopping. There are a considerable number of art shops here and a fine selection of ceramics to be purchased. Many of the paintings here are depictions of Santorini itself.

The other thing that many people purchase on the island is the wine. There are a number of wineries to visit and here you can taste some of Santorini's famous wines before deciding on your purchase. Other local products such as tomato juice can also be purchased at the wineries.
